Jesus Changes Everything

Acts 9:1-19

Saul hated Christians. He dedicated his life to hurting people who followed Jesus. But one day, as Saul was walking to Damascus, he met Jesus, and his life was never the same. Instead of hurting Christians, Saul became one of them. Just like Saul, when we say yes to Jesus, everything changes!

Talk about these questions at home:

- Can God change someone who has done really wrong things? How do we know?
- How does God change us when we start following Him?

The Holy Spirit Gives Us Power

Acts 9:19-31

Right after Saul was baptized, he couldn't help but tell everyone he met about Jesus. But people couldn't believe what they saw—was the man who hated Christians now preaching about Jesus? Some were amazed, some were afraid, and others were even angry. Saul was ready to preach the Good News no matter the cost, but not by his own power. Saul knew his power came from the Holy Spirit.

Talk about these questions at home:

- Why do you think Saul couldn't keep the Good News to himself?
- Where do you need the Holy Spirit's help in your life?

Jesus is for Everyone

Acts 16:16-40

News spread that Paul, who used to hurt Christians, now believed in Jesus. Angry people had Paul and his friend Silas thrown into the worst part of the jail, but they prayed and sang all night. A big earthquake shook the jail, but Paul chose not to escape. The jailer was shocked by Paul's actions and asked how he could be saved. That night, Paul taught the jailer's whole family about Jesus, and they were all baptized.

Talk about these questions at home:

- What does this story teach us about God's power?
- Who is someone you can share Jesus with this week?

God Calls Us to a Life With Him

Acts 21-22

No matter what Paul was doing or where he was, he was always living his life with God. When he finally made it back to Jerusalem, some people were not happy with him, and he was arrested. Paul didn't freak out or try to get back at the people who were hurting him. Paul lived his life with God, and he trusted that God would bring him through whatever was ahead.

Talk about these questions at home:

- Why is it important to obey God even when others don't understand?
- How can sharing your story about Jesus help others?

Jesus is Coming Again

Revelation 19-22

The book of Revelation pulls back the curtain and shows us what will happen when Jesus comes again. He will defeat sin once and for all, and there will be a new heaven and a new earth. In this new creation, God will dwell with His people, and there will be no more sin to separate us from Him. Even though there is brokenness now, we have hope because we know the story ends with Jesus returning.

Talk about these questions at home:

- What happens to sin in the new creation?
- Why do you think God wants us to know how the story ends?

God's Story Continues Today

2 Corinthians 5:17

Over the past year, we have been going through the whole Big Bible Story, and today we reviewed what we learned! All the stories in the Bible fit together to tell one big story—God's story. From creation and the fall, to His pursuit of Israel, to Jesus' death, resurrection, and ascension, to the early church, God had a plan to fix what was broken. His plan was Jesus. God's story continues today as He works in our lives.

Talk about these questions at home:

- If you could meet one person from the Bible, who would it be and why?
- How can we use the Bible in our everyday lives?
